

A high-angle, wide shot of a busy city street at night, likely Times Square in New York City. The street is filled with yellow taxis and pedestrians. The buildings are covered in large, brightly lit billboards and advertisements. One prominent billboard on the left features the text "A BRONX TALE" and "A COMBINATION OF SEYBOYS & WEST SIDE ST". Another billboard in the center-left reads "LONE SURVIVOR FOUNDATION" and "OUR MISSION: RESTORE, EMPOWER, AND RENEW HOPE FOR WOUNDED SERVICE MEMBERS AND THEIR FAMILIES". A McDonald's restaurant is visible on the left side of the street. The overall scene is vibrant and bustling.
